HOW'S THIS BULLETIN?

The extreme heat has the effect of melting prices. Better values for less money than ever before. Our purchases of the past week have been amongst the most fortunate deings of our business transaction. We have secured many seasonable goods at prices unprecedented.

We have a small lot of REMNANTS OF SATINK, in pink, blue, and cream, worth 12%c., which we will sell at Sc a yard.

Just opened one case of SATINE REMNANTS, in black and navy blue only. We could get loc for them, but we prefer selling them as we do everything at a small profit, and so they go at 7%c, a yard.

7%c. a yard.

61c.

1,000 yards PINE INDIA LINEN, 40 inches wide goods, worth 18%c. a yard, but being in remnants we will sell them at 6%c. a yard and they will be sold before you know it.

FRENCH CHAMBRAYS, very sheer, would be sheap at 15c.; we will sell them rapidly and 9c. a cheap at 15c.; we will sel yard is the way to do it.

CHECKED BATISTE.—This is the same quality of goods usually sold at 12%, a yard, but the lot is small and &c., at which we offer them, is a popular price and helps to increase our popularity.

5 pieces STRIPED BLACK ORGANDY, never sold by any house under 16%c. They go this week at the low price of 10c. yard. Our BATISTE LAWNS at 5c, a yard are said to be the best and prettiest at this price ever seen here.

INSURANCE COMPANIES.

HE NORTH WESTERN MUTUAL
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF MILWAUKEE is now in the thirtieth year of its existence. Its good points include rapid pregress, large surplus, large dividends, and a low doeshrate (1.01 per cent. in 1897). Surplus, December 21, 1897, 24,641,892,99. Its dividends are unsurpassed. It is the only company which has, in recent years, printed tables of current-cash dividends for the information of the public. The NORTH WESTERN has done this for seventeen consecutive years. JOHN B. CARY & SON,
